

James Gabriel Family Foundation

James Gabriel Scholarship Program Eligibility, Application, and Program Deadline Details
2009 - 2010 Academic Year

The James Gabriel Family Foundation (JGFF) is a Pennsylvania Non Profit Corporation, approved by the IRS as a 501(c) (3) organization in 2008. The flagship program of the James Gabriel Family Foundation is its James Gabriel Scholarship Program. Each academic year, the JGFF will award a number of scholarships. All scholarships are awarded on an objective and non-discriminatory basis. See below for details concerning 2009-2010 awards. For information about the JGFF call 304-225-7289 or e-mail jamesgabriel.familyfoundation@gabes.net. Be checking on the internet at www.jamesgabrielfamilyfoundation.org for the JGFF Website, to be unveiled in early 2010. NOTE: Members of the James Gabriel Family Foundation Board and/or the James Gabriel Scholarship Selection Committee or their families are not eligible for these scholarship programs. All scholarships are awarded on an objective and non-discriminatory basis.

PROGRAM AWARD RECIPIENTS	AWARDS SCHEDULED FOR DECEMBER 2009	ADDITIONAL ELIGIBILITY DETAILS
Gabriel Brothers, Inc. Associates and Families	Seven (7) seven hundred fifty dollar ($750) scholarship awards (Application materials to be received no later than Friday December 18, 2009)	<input type="checkbox"/> Current associates and their families are eligible <input type="checkbox"/> Applicant must be enrolled or accepted into any qualifying college/post secondary educational program <input type="checkbox"/> Application form must be complete and timely submitted <input type="checkbox"/> Essay (200 word) submitted with application, focusing on “social responsibility” <input type="checkbox"/> Recommendation letter from academic contact (high school guidance counselor, college professor, etc.) sent directly to the JGFF by the noted deadline, must affirm academic standing and vision <input type="checkbox"/> Unofficial academic transcript must be submitted with application; transcript must demonstrate that applicant has at least a 3.0 GPA overall as of the time of the application. (An official transcript may be required upon JGFF’s request for verification).
Rugged Wearhouse, Inc. Associates and Families	Seven (7) seven hundred fifty dollar ($750) scholarship awards (Application materials to be received no later than Friday December 18, 2009)	<input type="checkbox"/> Current associates and their families are eligible <input type="checkbox"/> Applicant must be enrolled or accepted into any qualifying college/post secondary educational program <input type="checkbox"/> Application form must be complete and timely submitted <input type="checkbox"/> Essay (200 word) submitted with application, focusing on “social responsibility” <input type="checkbox"/> Recommendation letter from academic contact (high school guidance counselor, college professor, etc.) sent directly to the JGFF by the noted deadline, must affirm academic standing and vision <input type="checkbox"/> Unofficial academic transcript must be submitted with application; transcript must demonstrate that applicant has at least a 3.0 GPA overall as of the time of the application. (An official transcript may be required upon JGFF’s request for verification).

In addition to these scholarships that will be awarded in December 2009, the JGFF will award scholarships in the above and related categories throughout 2010. Be sure to check the JGFF, Gabriel Brothers, and Rugged Wearhouse websites for additional information as it is announced. In James Gabriel’s honor, we thank you for your interest in education and the principles for which he stood.

The James Gabriel Family Foundation is dedicated to fulfilling the dream and legacy of James Gabriel by providing educational opportunities in all disciplines and for all people.